The Hispanic Bar Association of Austin (“HBAA”) is an organization of Latino lawyers who volunteer their time and energy towards the betterment of the Hispanic community in central Texas. Its membership includes attorneys practicing in Austin and the surrounding areas, judges, legislators, lobbyists, government officials, law professors, law students and non-lawyers who join as associate members. The HBAA's goal is to foster and encourage the involvement of Austin's Latino lawyers in the local community. Active members of the HBAA become involved as Latino leaders in the issues that face our community and volunteer their time for the betterment of the Hispanic community in general.
